

AFFILIATE MEMBER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Guidelines and Qualifications

The Affiliate Member of the Year Award is to recognize and reward an individual Affiliate member for his/her work and contributions made to the Williamson County Association of REALTORS® which have been beneficial to the Association as a whole and the membership in general during the calendar year.

In addition to the ASSOCIATION AWARDS COMMITTEE GUIDELINES, the following are the guidelines and nominee qualifications for the Affiliate Member of the Year Award:

1. Nominee must have been an Affiliate member of the Association for at least 12 consecutive months prior to being nominated for this award.
2. Nominee must be a current Affiliate member of the Association at the time he or she is being considered for the award.
3. The following four criteria are considered in determining the recipient of the award:
 - a. Association committee memberships.
 - b. Volunteer contributions made to the Association.
 - c. Length of service in chosen profession.
 - d. Positions held in nominee's own trade organization.

Applications will be reviewed by the Awards Selection Committee and selected prior to the Annual Installation and Awards Banquet in December.
